

Alcohol Waiver Europe, South America, Asia, Australia

The minimum drinking age for all alcoholic beverages on all Royal Caribbean International® ships is 21. Waivers are not granted on any itinerary other than Europe, South America, Asia or Australia.

Upon the request of a parent or legal guardian¹, guests who are 18 – 20 years of age may order and consume beer, wine or liquor only on European, South American, Asian or Australian itineraries subject to the following requirements:

- a. The ship must be in international waters, Valid for use only in Europe, South America, Australia and Asia. Waivers are not granted for any other itineraries.
- b. A parent or legal guardian¹ must be onboard and sailing with the 18-20 year old and accept responsibility for, and monitor the behavior of, the 18-20 year old as noted below and in our Guest Conduct Policy to ensure the privilege is enjoyed responsibly.
- c. The 18-20 year old must agree in writing to comply with our policies. Among other things, the 18-20 year must agree:
 - That he or she will not provide any alcoholic beverage to any minors, regardless of whether the minor is related to the 18-20 year old.
 - That the privilege to be served beer, wine or liquor is a privilege, not a right, and may be withdrawn at anytime at the cruise line's discretion².
 - To not provide any beer, wine or liquor obtained, to anyone else, including other friends and adults.
- d. The privilege to be served beer, wine or liquor may be revoked or limited by the cruise line and the cruise line's policy may be changed at any time without prior notice.
